

Hayley:

Beautiful and vivacious four-year-old Hayley was left abandoned and vulnerable when her parents died before she was one year old. Malaria, starvation and dehydration left her close to death. In her short life, Hayley has already experienced sorrow most of us could never imagine.

In Sierra Leone, one in four children die before their fifth birthday. You can help children like Hayley enjoy many more birthdays.

By giving a dollar-a-day, you can sponsor All As One's orphanage in Sierra Leone to support and educate Hayley, and provide her with a happy future.

We have many children, like Hayley, who are in desperate need of your help. Please join our campaign to build a future for the vulnerable children in Sierra Leone – everything you give will help to save a child's life.

Four quarters to you is nothing... to Hayley, it is her future.
